

ATTENTION HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARS

Get Ahead in the College Process with Press Submit

MAAC's CEO/Founder Andrea Nicole Smith-Morgan was a classroom teacher of 27 years in the Montclair Public Schools. As the 2019 Montclair teacher of the year, All-Stars Project Afterschool Development Award Recipient, and author of The Labeling of African American Boys in Special Education: A Case Study, Andrea and the MAAC community have served over 500 scholars. MAAC's three-tiered approach of academics, wellness, and community creates innovative, thought-provoking, mindful, and talented scholars who find their voice and stand in their power.

PRESS SUBMIT 2022

PRESS SUBMIT ALLOWS OUR HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARS TO GET AHEAD IN THE COLLEGE PROCESS

Our program gives scholars a mindful and comprehensive approach to the college process. Partnering with one of the most elite college prep services, Breakaway Prep, scholars receive unlimited access and opportunities to college greatness.

WHAT WE OFFER/LEARNING ADVENTURES:

- College readiness process
- Building the scholars' narrative
- Strategies and tools for academic and social/emotional success
- Cultural and community connections
- Building confidence/Standing in your power
- Music and mindfulness

Summer Bootcamp College WINS!!

University of Pennsylvania, NYU, US Naval Academy, American University, Montclair State University, Rider University, University of San Francisco, University of Texas, St. John's University, Hampton University, Montclair State University, Spelman College, Rutgers University

TWO-WEEK BOOTCAMP

When:

Week of July 18th, 10:00am - 2:00pm
Week of July 25th, 10:00am - 2:00pm

Cost: $895/Scholarships available upon request

Contact: andrea@themaac.org

Location: The Vanderhoef-Westervelt House - located within Weasel Brook Park in Clifton, NJ

ONLINE PARTNERS

- New Jersey Chapter Association of Black Psychologists
- UBS Financial
- Music Beyond Measure
- Luminosa Psychological Services

Go to www.themaac.org to Register